

Autism in the Workplace Training

This 3 hour workshop is aimed at anyone wishing to learn more about:

- Autism, the spectrum, prevalence and the diagnostic process, including issues around diagnosis/recognition for adults
- Understanding of the issues people with autism may face in the workplace and ways of making workplaces autism friendly
- Increasing knowledge around employer adjustments and workplace strategies
- Legislation and the law
- Increasing confidence in this area

Saturday 30th March 2019
At the UNISON Regional Centre
Vivian Avenue
Nottingham
NG5 1 AF

ONLY 25 PLACES AVAILABLE, SO BOOK NOW!!!!

Registration from 9.30am

Workshop starts at 10am and concludes by 1pm, follow by lunch.

Debbie Austin -
Specialist Autism
Awareness Trainer

Debbie has over a decade of experience working with people with Autism and Asperger Syndrome in a variety of settings. Debbie is a passionate and inspirational self advocate for Autism and Asperger syndrome and regularly speaks at conferences, on TV and Radio to raise awareness of Autism and Asperger Syndrome; the issues people face, prevalence and issues for women and girls on the spectrum and mental health and autism. Debbie has also been involved in setting up a number of projects aimed at providing mentoring and advocacy for those individuals with High Functioning Autism/Asperger Syndrome who receive little or no support. Debbie is also a qualified therapist, providing coaching and counselling for individuals with Asperger Syndrome. She is also an activist and campaigner for employment rights for Autistic people. Debbie is the Specialist Autism Awareness Trainer at Autism East Midlands and Specialist Mentor for autistic students in higher education.