

FREE COURSES FOR UNISON MEMBERS

OPEN UNIVERSITY/UNISON AUTISM AWARENESS WORKSHOP

10AM - 4PM | WED 12TH SEPT | MANSFIELD

UNISON, working in partnership with the Open University, is running a free 1-day workshop on autism awareness for members on the above date in Mansfield.

The workshop is run by an experienced Open University Tutor and aims to:

- increase understanding of autism spectrum conditions
- explore the origins of theories and ideas about autism
- help understand the biological basis of autism and link this to both explanations of autism and behavioural aspects of the condition

The workshop is available to UNISON members only, regardless of your current level of qualifications and is free of charge.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided. However, please note UNISON is unable to reimburse travel expenses for this event.

HOW TO APPLY

Send your completed application form (available either electronically or from your branch) to unisonnottslearning@gmail.com or return it to your local Union Learning Rep or your branch office.
